REFLECTIONS ON TODAY'S GOSPEL
GOSPEL: LUKE 13:1 - 9

"Cut it down. Why should it clutter up the ground?"

If you have a little plot of ground, so much as a flower pot to call your own, you can sympathize with the vineyard owner. With a little bit of earth in which to encourage things to grow, there is no room for the barren vine, the fruitless tree. Tear it up; plant something that will bloom!

But in Luke's merciful gospel, we always get a second chance. Unlike the fig tree stories elsewhere that end in Jesus cursing the tree and withering it. Luke forms a parable in which a compassionate gardener speaks for the tree. "Let me give it the extra care it may be lacking. Let me give it every chance to come around."

Lent is the season of extra care our hearts may need to soften up and receive the seed of the Gospel. We take this time to allow the Gardener to loosen our roots, water us generously, and fertilize us vigorously in the hopes that any barren ground within us will begin at last to respond.

Questions for Reflection

Where have you encountered a "burning bush," a sign of God's presence and call, in your life? Where might the bush be burning now?

Gauge your spiritual posture along the lines of prayer, moral living, generosity, faith, hope, justice, love. How straight do you stand?

What extra care does your heart need to come alive this season?

Action Response

Time to weed the garden. Get rid of some old habit that clutters up your life and robs you of time and energy. Use that rediscovered plot of ground to plant something fruitful.
