REFLECTIONS ON TODAY'S GOSPEL

LUKE 10:25 - 37

“And who is my neighbor?”

Trust a lawyer to ask a question like this! “Just exactly who is my neighbor, Lord?” So Jesus tells a story beloved of children in Sunday schools everywhere, the simplest story in the world. As we suspected, the titles and roles of these characters in the story mean nothing in the end. The truth of who they are is revealed in their hearts, and their hearts are revealed in their response to human suffering.

This is crystal clear in our own assemblies, though we pretend it isn't. Standing in the sanctuary does not make you pious, and a show of piety does not make you a friend of God. Nor does being cast as an enemy of God - the non-Catholic, the non-churchgoer, the person who leads a life of suspicious morality - mean you are not a lover of your neighbor and, by extension, of God as well. We humans are sitting in the cheap seats, and we cannot see as God sees from the perspective of eternity. Rather than asking, “Who is my neighbor?” we ought to be asking, How can I help?

Questions for Reflection

In what aspect of your life does God's will and your will collide most frequently?

How do you approach the matter of mystery in faith? What does it mean to you in your everyday life?

Tell the story of a time you saw an “Enemy of God” do the right thing. How did it challenge you?

Action Response

Let there be no more “enemies of God” in your heart. Practice thinking differently about the types of people you regard as reflexively bad. Avoid slander, sarcasm and stereotyping of groups. Begin to see in every person a beloved child of the same God.

We encourage students to reach for their highest potential, to model Gospel values and to make both an integral part of the curriculum. Question: My Irish grandmother always used to take us to the beach on August 15 after Mass because “there was a blessing on the water.” Isn’t that a superstition?

Answer: Not at all! Jumping into the sea on August 15 is perhaps the Irish equivalent of the Greek custom of jumping in on Epiphany. On the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we recall the dignity of our baptism. It would be hard to imagine a more pleasant devotion than a grateful leap into the waves or off the diving board into refreshing waters. The Assumption is a glimmer of Easter in the summer sun. It is an assurance in faith that we are redeemed in our bodies, and that where Mary has gone by faith in Christ’s resurrection, we are headed there too. The dogma proclaimed by Pope Pius XII in 1950 is not a recent invention, but describes our ancient faith that at the end of her life, Mary, untouched by death, experienced the fullness of resurrected life. That’s where we’re headed too. Our destiny opened up to us in that first plunge into baptismal waters. Okay, maybe it was just a few drops on your forehead. But your grandmother found a way to make you recall that gift of God with a joyful plunge. The Assumption is a feast of heaven, our home. There is some clear theology around your asking your boss for a day off to go to the beach for “religious reasons.” Just remember to celebrate Eucharist first!

Attention Musical Lovers!

Join the St. Roman Young at Heart as they travel to the Fireside Dinner Theater on September 2 to see the musical “Hairspray”. The Fireside is the first professional theatre in Wisconsin to produce the smash Broadway hit HAIRSPRAY.

It’s 1962 and in the city of Baltimore young Tracy Turnblad, a big girl with big hair and an even bigger heart, has only one passion – to dance. When she wins a spot on a popular TV dance show she is transformed from outsider to teen celebrity. But can she win the love of handsome Link Larkin and defeat the evil plans of teen princess Amber Von Tussle? HAIRSPRAY is a classic fairy tale told with humor and heart amid the exciting rhythms of 60’s rock and roll and featuring some of the most high-energy, spectacular dancing you’ll ever see on the stage.

Join us for a fun-filled day! We will leave St. Roman’s parking lot at 8:15 AM, stop at the Jones Dairy Meat Outlet for some shopping and then enjoy a wonderful dinner and the show. We will stop at the Elegant Farmer on our way home for some final shopping. The cost of the trip is $84.00 and includes the meal, show and transportation (Charter Bus).

Call Rae Ann at the Parish Office at 414-282-9063 to sign up or with questions. A $10.00 deposit is required to hold your spot and the remaining balance is due August 1.
